

Unwind on the waterways this May Half Term with Le Boat

Take a short break or spend a week afloat in France – with prices from just £283 per person, a boating holiday with Le Boat is the perfect choice for a family getaway this half term

For families looking for a different type of holiday this half term, Europe's number one boating holiday company Le Boat offer the widest choice of cruising destinations and the largest fleet of quality boats with a holiday choice to suit everyone.

Children of all ages will love seeing and exploring the best of the spring countryside whether it's on the water or riding on their bikes alongside it. And there won't be any complaints from the adults who can enjoy a slower pace of life from their sundeck.

Le Boat's Half Term Pick

FRANCE

Cruising bases are scattered throughout France from the sun-drenched Canal du Midi in the South of France and the festivals and traditions of Brittany, to the wine rich regions of Burgundy and the picture postcard settings of the Nivernais Loire valley. Each destination offers a unique perspective on local landscapes and daily lifestyles that open up as you cruise the waters at your own pace.

Spend one week cruising the waterways of France during May Half Term from £283 per person when booked before the end of April, saving 15% off the original price. Price based on a family of four sharing a Rialto Cruiser.
